

IPR Workshop for MAMC Students of SIMC

A day-long workshop was organized for the MAMC Journalism students on the subject of Intellectual Property Rights on the 18th of February, 2020. The resource person for this workshop was Mr. Dominic D'Souza.

Mr. D'Souza is a legal professional who has been in the media law industry for more than twenty years. He has been associated with several newspapers, big conglomerates like the Star group and the Zee network and OTT platforms.

He also serves on the Indian governmental bodies and industry trade bodies in areas of IP law and broadcast regulations.

In the workshop, he covered aspects of Intellectual Property Laws, how they arise in the media, IPR related challenges faced by the industry professionals and IPR related media contracts.
